

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the MyCastaic.com website. This valuable website will be an excellent tool for all of our residents in the community. You will find a wide array of information at your fingertips, from helpful information for families and businesses to a community calendar for upcoming events.

As one of the gems of Los Angeles County, Castaic offers its residents rich recreational opportunities, a beautiful environment, expansive trails system, parks, and an improved quality of life.

Castaic is an ideal place to call home or operate a business.

Los Angeles County is committed to ensuring that all of our residents have the highest quality municipal and public safety services. For more information on county-related services, resources, and community events, please feel free to contact my office field office at (661) 287-3657, or visit me online at my website www.antonovich.com.

Sincerely,
